RALEIGH AT THE CENTENNIAL .-The Military and Fire Companies of Raleigh were a conspicuous feature at the Celebration and were surpassed by none in any particular. The Light Infantry attracted universal admiration by the ease and beauty of their movements, and their fine soldierly carriage. No Company excelled it in equipment,. The Artillery did their part well also. The Rescues were much admired, and with their fine Engine added much to the imposing appearance of the procession. [SPECIAL TO DAILY NEWS.]

Charlotte, N. C., May 21. Another sad misfortune occurred in the Raleigh Light Artillery Company this evening, Jesse Bingham. a young man in the employ of Messrs. Betts, Allen and Co., of your city, having his right arm blown off by the same gun with which young Williams was so severly injured yesterday. A satisfactory surgical operration was perfomed, and I am pleased to state that both Williams and Bingham are doing well. Gov Brogden reviewed the military to-day and addressed the Cadets of the Charlotte Institute.

The Raleigh Light Infantry paraded the streets to-day and were honored with special receptions by a number of prominent citizens. They were given the post of honor in the grand parade yesterday.

THE MECKLENBURG CENTENNIAL. -Upon our editorial page will be found a lengthy account of the grand celebration at Chariotte on Thursday, but as we were not present. Thursday night, we clip the following account of the afternoon and night's transactions from the special to the Richmond Enquirer:

Governor Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, in response to the toast, "The United States our Common Country," said he had not known the salute of one hundred guns at until he entered the door that he was sunrise on the morning of the 20th at | to speak, but that was a toast he was Charlotte, one of the guns went off prematurely, and Mr. Wiley Wil-On the soil where the declaration Mecklenburg was made he felt sure there was as great a love of liberty and equality of States as anywhere. The Richmond battalion of infantry and artillery has won golden opinions for soldierly bearing and proficiency. Fayetteville and Raleigh have also sent fine companies. The Howitzers were compelled to leave their guns in park to day for want of horses, though they exercised great enterprise in efforts to secure them— The celebration was closed to-night by a grand centennial mass-meeting around the Liberty pole erected yes-terday on Independence Square. Gov-ernor Brogden presided and intro-duced Governor Chamberlain, of South Carolina, who made a temperate and patriotic speech.

He was followed by Governor Hen-dricks in a stiring address, full of fraternal feeling. Then came Governor Vance with a speech of characteristic fervor and Loud calls were then made for ex-Governor Walker, who, although not on the stand, was induced to respond. His speech was one of the most effective of the day or night, and the manner of its reception was most enthusiastic.

Colonel H. M. Polk, of Tennessee, and others, followed, and the cele-bration ended at a late hour amid patriotic and pyrotechnic demonstrations of various kinds.

A RELIABLE HOUSE.-We invite especial attention to the advertisement in another column of Messrs. Petty & Jones. These gentlemen are known favorably as occupying a prominent position among the most liberal, energetic and enterprising merchants of our State, although comparatively young men. They are offering their goods at extremely low prices, and the firm is constantly endeavoring to advance the interests of its customers by offering goods too low to be undersold.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT AT CHAR-LOTTE.-We regret to learn that another accident occurred at Charlotte yesterday evening in the Raleigh Artillery Company. During the firing of a salute yesterday, a young man named Bingham in the employ of Messrs. Betts, Allen & Co., of this city, had his right arm blown off by a premature discharge of the gun. We are glad to learn, however, that his life is not endangered by the accident.

Mr. Bingham is a young man who came to this city from Pennsylvania some 8 months since, and is of most exemplary character.

We have not learned to whom the blame is to be attached for this second accident.

An Affecting Scene-Insanity of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln.

Apropos of the dispatch in our columns this morning announcing the attempted suicide of Mrs. Lincoln, the following, under date of Chicago May 19th, will be found of interest:

In the county court the trial of the question of the sanity of Mrs. Lincoln, widow of Abraham Lincoln, came up to-day. The proceedings were based on a petition filed by Robert L. Lincoln, setting forth that his mother, Mary L. Lincoln, has property and effects exceeding $75,000; that she is non compos mentis, and incapable of managing her estate and praying the issuance of an order for a warrant and venire to thest the question of her sanity.

The petition was accompanied by the certificate of the family physician (Dr. Isham) to the effect that he had examined Mrs. Lincoln and was of the opinion that she was insane and a fit subject for hospital treatment. Several witnesses testifled to eccentricities in the conduct of Mrs. Lincoln, which commenced at the time of the assassination of President Lincoln, and which have become more marked as time progressed. She imagines she hears voices in the wall, that strange beings beset her in the entries of her hotel, that she was the victim of poisoning plots, etc. Her closets are full of unopened packages which she has ordered to be sent to her room. After short argment the case was given to the jury, who brought in a verdict in accordance with the facts elicited. Mrs. Lincoln will be removed to the hospital at Batavia, Ill. Her relatives and friends have delayed this step as long as was considered prudent, but finally agreed that nothing else would

At the announcement of the verdiet Ro. Lincoln took the hand of his mother affectionately, when she exclaimed, with reproachful tone, "Oh, Robert, to think that my son would ever have done this!" There were few spectators in court.

The clerk of a druggist in New Orleans recently sold spirits of camphor for camphor water. It was administered to a patient and produced death. A suit was brought against the druggist for damages, and it has just been disposed of by the Supreme Court of Louisiana, which held that the defendant was primarily liable and also liable for the acts of his clerk in the regular discharge of his business. The Court declared that the law does not place a community in the position of being poisoned by mistakes, with no one to be held responsible therefor. If it was his ervant who did it he is still responsible, for the master is responsible for the acts of his s rvant when done in the course of his usual employ-ment. Such decisions as these are necessary to keep the dispensers of poisonous drugs and compands up to a proper degree of watchfulness. In all cities, there is far too much carelessness displayed in relation to this matter. In some cases incompetent assistants are put in position in drug stores on principles of sconomy. A few hundred dollars are saved each year on the salary of clerks, and the proprietors take the chances. In other instances clerks are suffered to get into careless habits and in this manner mistakes occur of a fatal character. But when drug-gists are held to a strict and rigid accountability, not only for their own mistakes but those of their assistants and clerks, there will be fewer mistakes and fewer deaths from the dispensing of improper drugs.

A CARPET-BAG SENATOR IN DANGER.—The impression is pretty strong that the testimony before the committee of the Alabama Legislature as to the manner of Spencer's election to the Senate will imperil his seat in that body. The Balti-more Sun's Washington correspon-dent says this testimony will be laid before the Senate next winter, and go before the Committee on Privileges and Election. As the commit-tee reported in favor of the expulsion of Mr. Caldwell, of Kansas, on precisely similar grounds, it cannot avoid the same conclusion in Spen cer' case. Spencer's vote is impor-tant at this juncture to the Republi-can party in the Senate, but in the critical condition of that party before the country, and presidential election coming on, it can hardly afford to keep him in his seat after this ex-

A good story is told of a scene at one of Messrs. Moody and Sankey's meetings. Among the congregation one night was a sailor. "Let all those who wish to go to Heaven stand up!" said Mr. Moody. First one, then another, then another of one, then another, then another of the congregation rose until at last all were standing except the British seamau. "Don't you want to go to Heaven?" inquired Mr. Moody. "Cer-tainly," replied Jack. "Then why don't you stand up?" "Cos I ain't going to Heaven with such a crew as this skipper," said the sailor, looking with undisguised contempt on those around him.

WHAT THE NERVOUS REQUIRE.-What WHAT THE NERVOUS REQUIRE.—What the nervous require more than anything else is invigoration. Sedatives alone will not cure nervousness. The reason that the nerves are so susceptible is that they are weak. Compensate for this deficiency of strength, and over-acure nervous sensibility disappears. The most rational, wholesome, and agreeable tonic is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Medical men recommend its use for the cure of general debility, knowing it to cossess strength-giving properties of the highest order, and at the same time to be a means of reforming those bodily irregularities which induce nervousness and loss of vigor. It is the best known remedy for dyspepsia, whether nervous or billious, and is powerfully censervative of a regular habit of body. As it is notorious that those who are affilied with weak nerves, billiousness or constipation. notorious that those who are amit cleu with weak nerves, birliousness or constipation, are peculi riy liable to the influence of malaria, it is invaluable to such persons on acc unt of its preventive efficacy. THE MECKLENBURG CELEBRA.

Nothing like this event has ever come off on the soil of North Carolina, so thronged in attendance, so varied in feature, so beautiful in its adjuncts, so well ordered in its management, and with one single exception, leaving behind it nothing but the most pleasurable remembrances. Charlotte has leaped at once into a national prominence by the presence of so many visitors from the sister States of the Union, and the Mecklenburg Declaration has become stamped in authority by the endorsement of the thousands of descendants to the records and traditions of their heroic ancestry.

Everything combined to make the scene one of surpassing beauty and brilliancy. A cloudless sky smiled over all, and a delightful temperature invigorated the spirits. Preceding showers had laid the dust. From every elevated point was displayed the stars and stripes floating from flag staffs or suspended from lines stretched across the streets, while every private dwelling and place of business was gay with many colored pennons and fluttering streamers. The air was resenant with the notes of the various bands, and the eye was delighted with the flashing of brilliant uniforms, and the striking decorations of the marshals. The streets were thronged with a dense mass of men, while every balcony and window was filled with ladies, enjoying from their position the spectacle so novel and magnificent.

The day was opened by the thunder of a hundred guns fired by the Richmond Howitzers and the Raleigh Artillery. From the hour when the first peal of commemoration shook the air until ten o'clock, crowds poured into the city from very quarter, from the country or horseback and in vehicles, and the six rail roads disgorged train load after train load, until it seemed that Charlotte could hold no more. Our sister State of South Carolina seemed as much interested as North Carolina, and numbered her delegates by thousands, and contributing four very fine and full fire Companies with all their equipments, to the display. About 10 o'clock, the procession began to assume form under the military eve of General Bradlev T. Johnston. It was headed by the Richmond Howitzers without guns, and immediately followed by a battalion of the 1st Virginia Regiment under the command of Major Bidgood. The companies of the battalion were full, and admirably drilled. The various North Carolina companies followed, comprising the Raleigh artillery, the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry. the Fayetteville LaFayette Light Infantry, the Raleigh Light Infantry, the Charlotte Grays, the Mecklenburg Zonaves, the Cadets of the Charlotte Military Academy (three companies,) the Mecklenburg Infantry, and the Rowan Rifle Guards.

All of these with the exception of the Zouaves were clad in the Confederate Gray.

The military was followed by the various fire companies with their engines, and the Hook and Ladder companies with their apparatus. As nearly as we remember the organizations were as follows: The 1st Fire company from Columbia with hose carriage; the Junior Pioneer company from Charlotte, the Phoenix Hook and Ladder company from Newbern, the Wilmington, the Wilmington Fire company with steamer Little Giant and hose (and a spendid band,) the Stonewall company from Chester S. C., the Pioneer, No. 2. from Rock Hill S. C., with steamer, and a company, 80 strong, with steamer from Newbern, and the Hornets rest company from Charlotte with steamer. There was also in the procession a boat from Wilmington on a truck, which excited much curiosity in landsmen. The appearance of the firemen with their bright red shirts, and glazed caps, their bright steamers glittering in the sunlight, the jingle of the bells of their apparatus, all tives. They all went to swell the went to make up a picture of great | commemoration into a great nation-splendor and novelty. The firemen were followed by the various civic societies, Masons, Grangers, &c., in regalia, and with the carriages bearing the orators, dignitaries, and guests of the city, formed a procession more than half a mile in length. After marching through the principal streets, and displaying to the public eyethe most beautiful picture ever presented to it in our State, the line of march was taken up to the Fair Grounds, about a mile and a half south of the city.

Here was ample room for the vast throng, and the military and fire companies soon stood "at ease." In the centre of the grounds was erected a large stand, under a huge awning, for the orators and distinguished visitors, while around were arranged seats for the accommodation of several thousands. This was soon filled to dangerous repletion, and the marshals were compelled to clear it to avoid danger. It did afterwards fall in, fully crowded, but without injury to any one. After silence was obtained, the Rev. Dr. Miller opened the exercises with the most beautiful, the most eloquent and at the same time the most reverent extempore prayer we have ever heard. Every heart was touched with devotion whilst it was fired with patriotism.

Maj. Seaton Gales, after a most happy and eloquent preface, read with emphasis and impressive force, the immortal Declaration of the daring twenty-seven patriots who affixed their names to the document which might have consigned them to a felon's doom, but which has made them immortal, and which gave the present occasion its exis-

The Hon. Wm. A. Graham, in a most animated and interesting review of the incidents which led to the present occasion, introduced to the audience the orator of the day, the Hon. John Kerr. His speech which occupied about an hour and a half in its delivery, was animated, able and eloquent. As it is already in press we make no comment. Gov. Graham then introduced the Hon. J. G. Bright, of Tennessee, who, as a descendant of the old Mecklenburgers, and as a distinguished orator in his own State, was most appropriately selected as one of the orators of the day. His speech was beautiful-eloquent, classic, and abounding in striking and poetical figures and brim full of enlarged patriotic sentiment. His sketches of revolutionary history, the South, the victory is already and his exhaustiee researches into won; for our people are a unit in the revolutionary history of North Carolina to vindicate her claim to priortiy in all patrietic movements, were especially grateful to the audience, as showing that the daughter of North Carolina has not weakened in filial devotion and reverence for the mother.

At the close of his speech, Gov. Graham introduced to the audience a visible and living link between the days of '75 and the present in the person of Jas. G. Belk, a venerable man of one hundred and ten years of age-a boy of ten at the time of the Mecklenburg declaration, and retaining a clear recollection of many of the incidents of the revolution. The old gentleman lives now in Union county, once a portion of Mecklenburg, and is in good health and of sound mind and memory. Another old man, Mr. Stimson, upwards of eighty was also introduced. He lives in South Carolina, but was born and reared in Mecklenburg, and has a distinct recollection of conversations with many of the participators in the ransactions of 1775. A beautiful dinner was spread to many hundred guests in Floral Hall of the Fair Grounds, and was enlivened with the usual toasts and speeches but as we speedily retired, we can say nothing of what was done here. At night there was a beautiful display of fire works in the public square, and speeches were made by ex-Gov. Hendricks of Indiana, Gov. Chamberlain of South Carolina, ex-Gov. Vance of North Carolina, and perhaps others. Duty had hurried us homeward, and we were not there to hear.

The occasion has more than realized the anticipations of the projectors of the commemoration. The little gathering of the citizens of Charlotte in January struck out the feeble spark that gradually kindled the great flame that at length blazed up not only in North Carolina, but throughout the Union. For not only were North Carolinians there, but South Carolina sent her thousands, Virginia was little behind, Tennessee was there with her dutiful tribute to her old mother, and Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York and Indiana had their representaal event. There was ex-Gov. Hendricks of Indiana, ex-Gov. Walker of Virginia, Gov. Chamberlain and ex-Gov. Moses of South Carolina. and there was Gov. Brogden of North Carolina, and ex-Governors Graham and Vance of North Caro lina, and Senator Merrimon, and Gov. D. H. Hill, Genl. Robt. Ransom, Genl. Bradley T. Johnston. Genl. Rufus Barringer, and other generals of the Confederacy. There were many distinguished gentlemen in the ranks of private life in our State, and from Virginia and South Carolina, also present. The Star Spangled banner floated every where on the breeze, and was viewed with patriotic emotion by every eye. All old heart burnings were gone and Key's immortal air, played by one of the bands, struck chords that had long been silent. The Confederate flags displayed awoke no rebellious pride. We only proclaimed that in the deeds of the past there was nothing to bring shame to us, and that to our dead we owed this recognition of the flag under which they fought and died. As to the numbers present it is all work of conjecture. We estimate it at 25,000. The correspondent of the Tribune says 40,000. But we think he exaggerates. In this vast throng, so unusual with us, it is to the glory of our people that there was not a single case of disorder or violence and there was as perfect propriety as at the most rigidly selected social gathering. The police had literally nothing to do. This order struck everybody forcibly. It is true there were a few cases of drunkenness, but the unfortunate victims quietly disposed themselves to sleep, disturbing nobody, and finding ready excuses in the profusion of temptation and the excitements of the day.

Charlotte provided liberally for all and no one went away dissatisfied. Every house was thrown open, and there was abundant provision for all. The authorities of the North Caroli Railroad Company exerted themselves and did everything to despatch comfortably and expeditiously the many thousands committed to their charge, and to their foresight and care is due the fact that no accident, not even any detention occurred to any one, and we presume the same can be said of all the other roads. We shall use hereafter the columns of the Charlotte Observer for particulars. We state from memory such impressions and facts as left their mark, passing over the whole subject lightly, which is unavoidable from its magnitude.

When the Administration papers are hunting around for an echo of such sentiments as the following from the Memphis Appeal, the effect must be truly discomfiting: "If the result of the next Presidential election depends upon the prudence of Slavery is dead; that the Confederacy has expired; that no one proposes to exhume its remains: that we dismiss all our resentments, and pro-pose to cherish no recollection of the war, save the memory of the brave who reflected honor upon American valor."

The contrast between Russia and Germany is rather marked in the matter of educating the masses. In the former country only twelve out of every hundred recruits in the army had, by the returns of 1872, mastered the rudiments of knowledge, while in the German army ninety-six out of every hundred could read and write. Russia, however, is gradually awakening to the importance of the subject, and if she keeps on in the course she has started upon will rapidly change these fig-

OFFICIAL REPORT. the following is the sworn report of sales of Sewing Machines made by the leading Companies for 1874. An examination of the figures below will show that the "Singer" has largely increased its sales, while the other companies have fallen off.

The Singer has shown a large increase in sales every year as the statement below for the last four years will prove.

In 1871 the Singer sold 52,731 more machines than their highest competitor, In 1872 the Singer sold 45,665 more ma-chines than their righest competitor.

In 1874 the Singer sold 148,852 more machines than their highest competitor.

Making the total sum of 875,137 machines which was 160,165 more than their highest competitor. This fact proves the great superfority of the "I of Ea" over any other machine. Now the question is, how long will this state of aniars last? How long will the other companies be able to keep offices open in the different cities and towns when they are selling so few machines? Persons who think of buying or exchanging old ones (of what-ver kind) are invited to consult their interest by getting a reliable machine from the o'd and reliable Singer Manufacturing Crmpany. office No. 12, Fay tteville street.

NORTH CAROLINA. The Henderson and Oxford tobacco markets keep well up to those in Richmond and Petersburg.

The Wilmington Star wants a rowing club in that place, for the benefit of the pale-faced clerks. Mary Long, the North Carolina mare, won the sweep-stakes at Charhotte on Wednesday. Hon. Jno Kerr will deliver the annual address before the Chowan Baptist Female Institute, at Murfreesboro, on the 7th of July. The Atlantic House at Beaufort is now open for the public. Beaufort will undoubtedly be largely attended

Winston is a temperance town, but the Sentinel says that one night last week a dozen gentlemen set up with a keg of beer that mysteriously found its way into the village, whereupon the said dozen men passed resolutions requesting the town commissoners to grant license for the sale of this

Says the Charlotte Observer of Wednesday; "The Executive Committee of the State Grange met in this city yesterday, Dr. Columbus Mills, Master of the State Grange, presiding. The business transacted was not of a character to interest the general reader. Final arrangements were completed with Col. J. D. Whitford, whereby he will take charge of the State Agricultural Journal in a very short time. The Committee will hold another meeting to-day, when it is thought a general State agent will be appointed."

Says the Wilson Advance: Gregory gave the Rads some hard licks the other night. After performing the first part of the programme, it was necessary to act the negro, and in announcing the fact, he said it would take him about eight minutes to change from a white man to a negro, but some people in this country could do it in less time than that. The Democratic Convention of Wilson county, to nominate a candi-date to represent that county in the State C ns itutional Convention, will be held on the fourth Saturday in June. Says the Wilson & dvance : The election is a very important one, and it is necessary that our county should elect a delegate that will truly represent the people. Every should feel that his vote was neces sary to elect such a representative, and should take an interest not only in the primary meeting that pomi-nates the candidate, but should certainly be at the polls in August." The Oxford Leader has gathered information from different sections of Granville county regarding the prospect of a tobacco erep in that county, from which information we make the following extracts: The plant beds in the Henderson section present a gloomy prospect; the flies have destroyed a great many plants. The prospect for plants in the Tallyyear, owing to the ravages of the fly; present indications points to only alf a crop. With favorable seasons au average crop will be planted in the Sassafras Fork section, although many of the best farmers have made almost an entire failure in raising plants. The plants in the Kittrells ection are both small and scearce. The prospect in the Berea section is by no means flattering, yet it is not altogether gloomy. In the Walnut Grove section there is a great scarcity of plants, and not more than half an average crop can be planted. There will not be as much ground planted in tobacco in the Knap of Reeds sectwo-thirds. Flies doing great damage to plants in the vicinity of Young's X Roads, and not a full crop can be planted. A great scarcity of plants is complained of in the neigh-borhood of Wlliamsboro, and a full crop cannot be planted. The Leader also has advices from Mecklenburg county, Va., stating that nothing like a crop can be planted in that

The Tilton-Beecher business was resumed Wednesday in the Brooklyn City Court, the room being once more crowded with people. The deendant is described as having been in quite a flow of good spirits, and as chatting and laughing with those of bim. Judge Porter began the summing up for defense, and occupied uninterruptedly the session of the court from its opening to the hour of adjourning without concluding. In the course of his address he argued the improbability, or rather the impossibility, of a man of Beecher's wonderful excellence and purity of character being guilty of the crime with which he is charged, or that Mrs. Tilton would or could have been the auther of such letters as while she was committing so great a sin against him. On Mr. Moulton and Mr. Tilton he of course had no mercy, branding them as liars by their own admission. With other witnesses for the plaintaff he did not deal much more tenderly.

The St. Louis Democrat, like the swan, sang sweetest just before dyng. Not content with pitching into the President and the third term, in one of its last issues it made things lively for the Southern carpet-baggers: "With what joy we speed the parting guest this time, also! J. J. Hester, the notorious manipulater of carpet-bag politics at the South, and the special agent upon whose information to the Attorney General many political arrests were made, has been dismissed. Judge Pierrepont it would seem, does not want men of hat stamp, around him. This is very distressing indeed to Hester, and to the rest of that pack of Southern individuals who proposed to "get

John C.; Breckenridge's stormy e seems to have had a very peace ful ending—he passed into the valley of the shadow of death and the unknown bourne beyond it with scarcely a pang. It was a fitting close, this, to a career whose morn began so happy as his did, and whose merithat in the vening it should go out with the halo of a glorious sanset.

[For the Daily News. Mr. Turner and the Orange Convention.

Mr. Editor:-I wrote you a description of the Orange County Convention a few weeks ago and referred for the truth of my statement to the best men there, including the Chairman and the Secretary. Mr. Turner in a short Editorial in the Sentinel of the 6th headed "not true" says my statement as to his using cuss words in the Convention and the sentinel of the convention and the sentinel of the sentinel in the Convention's ere base, and that Maj. Patterson and his true friends were perfectly satisfied. Maj. Patterson's card in the Plant nails the latter statement as false, and I again refer to the distinction. refer to the distinguished gentlemen mentioned in my first letter as to Mr. Turner's language. He says in the Sentinel of this week headed "Cuss Words"; the Raleigh Newshad a letter last week from some of the Revenue Democrats of Hillsboro putting blast hemous cuss words "in our mouth in a public words "in our mouth in a public speech." Mr Turner, you are on the wrong trail, we never held a public office, we never voted for Col. Ruffin as you are trying to make the impression abroad, never voted any ticket but a straight Conservative ticket. As for my being a Revenue Democrat you are as sadly mistaken inyour man as you were when you sent a delegation on the Sabbath day, to call on the Christian gentleman, Representative of Orange, Mr. Matthew Atwater, after the unfortunate death of his son, and requested him to resign that you might declare yourself a candidate for the House of Representatives; but Mr. Atwater said no, "he thought he would be able to get some friend to remain with his family while he was in Raleigh and that his friends were very anxious for him to run. And now Mr. Turner, what did your committee do? They said we are authorized to go farther and say if you will decline to run you shall have your per diem. Mr. Atwater says no sir, per diem is no in-ducement to me. Mr. Turner tried to get several gentlemen to go on this mission before he succeeded, and verily they and Matthew Atwater are witnesses of the above. Mr. Tur-ner, cease your abuse of Maj. Pattertion and Patterson the representative of the farmers is being borne to the A PATRON.

THE MARYLAND AND THE VIR-GINIA BORDER LINE .- The Baltimore Gazette, referring to the meeting in Washington last week of the Board of Arbitrators to settle the boundary line between Maryland and Virginia, consisting of Hon. Jeremiah S. Black, of Pennsylvania, Wm. A. Graham, of North Carolina, and Charles J. Jenkins, of Georgia, with A. W. Graham, of North Carolina, as Secretary to the Board, says:

"The Board then adjourned to meet at New York on the 30th of June, 1875, to hear full argument of the case. In the meanwhile, it is probable that more witnesses to prove traditions and reputation as to the boundary line, as understood by the "o'dest inhabitants," will be ex-amined in Somerset county, Md., and in Accomac, Va. Thirty-one young ladies in War-saw, Kentucky, have signed a new kind of pledge which reads: "We, the undersigned, ladies of Warsaw, desiring by our example to promote economy and to discountenance extravagance, and thereby lighten in some measure the burdens of our husbands and fathers by prudent retrenchments in our household expenses, therefore pledge our words of honor one to the other, that we will not during a period of one year from the 1st of May, 1875, purchase any material for wearing apparel the cost of which shall exceed twentyfive cents per yard; and shall further promise to observe a strict economy in all our household expenses, and cheerfully add by those delicate sacrifices to the general stock of home comforts-too often dispensed with for the frivolous outside adornment of the body alone."

Persons wishing to make contracts for advertising in any town, city, county, State or Territory of the United States, or any portion of the Dominion of Canada, may send a concise statement of what they want, together with a copy of the Adventisement, and receive information which will enable them to decide whether to increase or reduce the order. For such information there is no charge, Orders are taken for a single paper as well as for a list; for a single dollar as readily as for a larger sum, Offices (T m+s Euilding), 41 PARK Row, N. #### The General Assembly of the Pres byterian Church South.

ST. Louis, Mo., May 21.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian Church South met again this A. M., Moderator Hoge in the Chair. The usual standing committees were appointed and the Committee of Sustananae made a recommit tenance made a report. Rev. Wm. Brown, D, D., Chairman of Committee of Friendly Relations between the Northern and Southern Churches, made a lengthy report which was laid over for further consideration. The gist of the report seems to be in the following passage: In a communication from the Rev. Wm. Brown, chairman of the Southern committee to Rev. Dr. the Southern committee, to Rev. Dr. Niccols, chairman of the Northern committee, he says: "If your assembly could see its way clear to say a ittee, he says: "If your assemw plain words to this effect that these obnoxious things were said and these obnoxious things were said and done in times of great excitement, that they are to be remitted, and that now in a calm view the imputations cast upon the Southern Church are disapproved, that would end the difficulty at once." In 'reply to this Dr, Niccols says: "We cannot make this recommendation to our assembly this recommendation to our assembly for the reason that we are still of the decided conviction that its action for the last five years so fully cited to you in our communication constitute a sufficient ground for fraternal correspondence." Dr. Niccols then reiterates that all the acts and deliverances of the Northern Assemblies of which you complain are wholly null and void, of no binding efficacy, as the judgments of the church we represent or as rules of proceedings for its Presbyteries and church session that in so far as they or any of them can be supposed to impart any injurious imputations upon the present character and stan-ding of the churches and members of the Southern Assembly as chrisof the Southern Assembly as christians of Presbyterians, such an application of them would be unjust to you and would be disapproved and regretted by us; that the acts and Deliverances of Northern Assembly, of which you complain, were made in peculiar times and under strange and exciting circumstances. To this the Rev.
